He Heals the Broken-hearted

147 Praise the LORD!
For it is good to sing praises to our God;
for it is pleasant,^[a] and a song of praise is fitting.
² The LORD builds up Jerusalem;
he gathers the outcasts of Israel.
³ He heals the brokenhearted
and binds up their wounds.
⁴ He determines the number of the stars;
he gives to all of them their names.
⁵ Great is our Lord, and abundant in power;
his understanding is beyond measure.
⁶ The LORD lifts up the humble;^[b]
he casts the wicked to the ground.

Psalm 147:1-6

Invitation to wholeness

These days we see a lot of brokenness: hurt and hopelessness on campus, young people experiencing severe loneliness, churches falling to corruption and disunity. It can feel tempting to give up and accept that we are broken, but Jesus invites us to more. He invites us into the art of repair. He invites us to lead others into wholeness.

“May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do it.” Thessalonians 5:23-24

What I love about this Scripture is the invitation into wholeness and blamelessness, with the reminder that this is not something we do on our own: Jesus is the artist behind our kintsugi. He is faithful. He will do it.

This year we are focusing on “undivided life,” leading and praying young people into whole-hearted following of Jesus. We do this through mentoring young people, building loving communities, and bringing the broken pieces of people, the campus, and ourselves to Jesus. The kintsugi of people starts in prayer. We intercede on behalf of others and with God, as the process of healing and wholeness is at play. We are starting this year off with a focus on prayer. Will you join us?

Missions Fest Vancouver is returning to the heart of Vancouver, hosted at Westside Church. The theme for 2024 is Together With Him.

The Great Commission is not about our going but about it being a co-mission, a co-partnership with Him. Learning to recognize and respond to a real person whose Kingdom comes where the King is—that's what our calling is all about. Our core conviction for the conference is that Jesus is someone to encounter, to hear, to love, to listen to, and to recognize as the One who's with us as we go.

Registration for Mission Fest Vancouver 2024 is free, with the opportunity to include a donation. Free tickets will also be available at the door. To register, visit:
