“The King at the Gate”

Psalm 118:19-29

Psalm 118:19-29

118:19 Open to me the gates of righteousness, that I may enter through them and give thanks to the LORD.

118:20 This is the gate of the LORD; the righteous shall enter through it.

118:21 I thank you that you have answered me and have become my salvation.

118:22 The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

118:23 This is the Lord's doing; it is marvelous in our eyes.

118:24 This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

118:25 Save us, we beseech you, O LORD! O LORD, we beseech you, give us success!

118:26 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the LORD. We bless you from the house of the LORD.

118:27 The LORD is God, and he has given us light. Bind the festal procession with branches, up to the horns of the altar.

118:28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to you; you are my God; I will extol you.

118:29 O give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever.

Leader: Come, all who seek the presence of Christ. This is a season of repentance, renewal, and surrender.

People: We lay down our burdens and take up the cross of Christ.

Leader: Let us come before God with humble hearts, ready to be renewed in His love and grace.

People: Lord, shape us, transform us, and draw us closer to You.

Leader: May this time of worship remind us that we are no longer our own, but belong fully to Christ.

Benediction

Leader: As we leave this place, may we carry the cross of Christ in our hearts.

People: May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ sustain us, the love of God embrace us, and the power of the Holy Spirit guide us.

Leader: Go now in faith, carrying the cross of Christ in your heart, knowing that His love has redeemed you, His mercy has restored you, and His presence goes with you.

Conference Topic

1 John: Abiding in Him who is True

In a world full of loud voices and conflicting messages, it is easy for the true gospel to get twisted and distorted. This is a struggle the early church faced as well. In a few short chapters, the apostle John brings clarity and assurance to believers then, and to us now, that we may know what is true and have confidence in our position before God for eternity. John's purpose for this letter is clear: that we would abide, stay, and remain in Jesus, who is True!
