Psalm 67

Let all the peoples praise God

67:1 May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, Selah

67:2 that your way may be known upon earth, your saving power among all nations.

67:3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

67:4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon earth. Selah

67:5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.

67:6 The earth has yielded its increase; God, our God, has blessed us.

67:7 May God continue to bless us; let all the ends of the earth revere him.

Regent College

Christian Education Bursaries

Apply by June 15

Dear Friends,

We've got some great news! Thanks to a generous donor family, this summer Regent is offering Christian Education Bursaries to laypeople who are active in teaching ministries in their local churches. These bursaries will cover most of the cost of auditing a Summer course.

Recipients do not need to be current Regent students, and do not need to apply for a program: all they'll need is a desire to learn and enrich their teaching! Applying is quick and easy: see below for details.

We'd love to see members of your church join us to learn in community this summer. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to get in touch with me at churches@regent-college.edu.

In Christ,

Daniel F. Fabiano

Conference Topic

1 John: Abiding in Him who is True

In a world full of loud voices and conflicting messages, it is easy for the true gospel to get twisted and distorted. This is a struggle the early church faced as well. In a few short chapters, the apostle John brings clarity and assurance to believers then, and to us now, that we may know what is true and have confidence in our position before God for eternity. John's purpose for this letter is clear: that we would abide, stay, and remain in Jesus, who is True!

Conference Speaker: Lisa Dusing
